MAJOR PROJECTS

- Event Planners:

This is a website was developed me and my group for online booking for every function of marriage regarding hotels, menu, venue etc. with using html, css and JavaScript.

- Book Pedia:

This website was prepared by me for online selling books and buying books for those students who do not need their unused books. They can sell their books to those who actually need that at less price than market. And they also can buy magazines and download papers for their better practice using java, jsp, and Servlet.

- Chain Reaction:

This game was developed by my group in a scripting language python and cross-platform pygame.

- Niks:

Niks is an android application for a company who want to grow their business in this fast moving world. Application is recently made by my group with using PHP REST APIs and JSON parsing. This application will be in market very soon.

- Dissertation:(Routing challenges in Internet Of Things)

It is a research report. This report provide the information about different routing challenges and attacks on IoT devices and provide solution on particular problem.
